

Teacher of Economics (with Business)

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
Summary of the role:	The successful candidate would be expected to teach throughout the School up to and including A-Level and be committed to outstanding teaching and learning.
Department:	The Economics and Business Department has a strong track record of success, attracting large numbers of students each year. Many of our pupils go on to study Economics, Business, or related disciplines at university. Within the Sixth Form, both subjects are offered as options: we follow the Pearson Edexcel Economics A specification for Economics and the AQA specification for Business. The department is staffed by three full-time teachers who contribute to both subject areas. Well-resourced and forward-looking, the department continues to expand its provision of co-curricular opportunities, designed to support, extend, and inspire our students.
Reporting: to:	Head of Economics and Business
Line management responsibility for:	N/A
Main Duties and Responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The candidate will be primarily responsible for teaching Economics (specifically microeconomics).• Expected to contribute to the further development of this successful department.• Expected to make a significant and sustained contribution to the co-curricular life of the school.• Expected to contribute to the pastoral life of the school.
Safeguarding responsibilities	Promote and safeguard the welfare of children and young persons with whom you come into contact.

You may also be required to undertake such other comparable duties as the Head requires from time to time.

Person Specification
	Essential These are qualities without which the applicant could not be appointed.	Desirable These are extra qualities which can be used to choose between applicants who meet all the essential criteria.	Method of Assessment
Qualifications / Knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• a graduate in Economics or a related discipline• able to teach Economics (specifically microeconomics) at A level• the ability and willingness to teach macroeconomics, along with potentially some A-Level Business	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• will preferably hold qualified teacher status	Production of the applicant's certificates. Discussion at interview. Independent verification of qualifications.
Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• able to demonstrate a proven record of excellent classroom practice for teaching and learning• display exceptional professionalism and inter-personal skills and able to command the respect of colleagues, parents and the pupils.		Contents of the application form. Interview. Professional references.
Personal competencies, qualities, attitude and behaviours	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• ambitious, energetic, enthusiastic and able to plan independently and collaboratively for the further development of this successful Department in line with the agreed aims of the School.• committed to his/her own professional development and, in particular, the use of ICT as a tool for teaching and learning.• High expectations and an unwavering commitment		Contents of the Application Form Interview Professional references

ST BENEDICT'S SCHOOL

a minimis incipe

	to enabling all students to fulfil their potential <ul style="list-style-type: none">• empathetic to the Catholic and Benedictine ethos of the School.
--	---	--	--